Poetry. A long-awaited collection from the much-admired editor of the fourW anthologies, DEATH AND THE MOTORWAY traverses intimate and intellectual ground here and abroad with surety and insight.

Several poems deal with David's experiences of life in Japan and the tensions between a busy academic life and the urge to create poetry.

Michael Larose:

As a pupil exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's spirit or real their interest. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Death and the Motorway can make you sense more interested to read.
