Cook vividly explores the genesis of the Red Curtain aesthetic, from Baz Luhrmann's early experience in theatre and opera to his collaborative working methods and unique production set-up. Drawing on in-depth interviews with Luhrmann and his chief collaborator, designer Catherine Martin, Cook traces the roots of their work in an increasingly globalized Australian film culture, investigating the relationship of their company Bazmark to the Hollywood studio 20th Century Fox, and the influences on their style and production methods. Covering such iconic films as Moulin Rouge!, William Shakespeare's Romeo + Juliet, and Australia, this book is a comprehensive look at Luhrmann's work.
