Dennis can't wait to get to school on Monday to tell his friends about the amazing event that happened at church. On Sunday, Dennis was one of 50 people at church who received $100 from his pastor. But there's a catch: Dennis has to use the money to help someone less fortunate. With advice from his friends, Isaiah, Stephanie and Sandy, Dennis is sure to think of someone in need. With a little creativity and hard work, the four pals might even figure out a way to turn Dennis' $100 into an even bigger donation. TARGET AUDIENCE Children between the ages of five and 12 Parents, teachers and educators who want to encourage reading literacy and financial literacy Banks, financial institutions, schools and entities that support financial education for students Non-profit agencies, churches and groups that serve youngsters from kindergarten middle school Companies/organizations seeking to enhance their corporate library or educate young people
