Actors' Resumes: The Definitive Guidebook Richard Devin

Here is everything you will need to write a complete and professional resume. Over 400 Producers, Directors, Agents and Casting Directors were asked what they want on your resume...and this book gives you the answers. Richard Devin is an actor-writer who has worked extensively in the entertainment community. He has appeared in films, television, and on stage. He began a Resume Service to research and help actors and casting entities develop a simplified resume. This book is a result of that work. Although the primary goal remains directed at the actors' resume, the final result is universal to all talents and fields. This book invites you to share the knowledge he collected and help you put together a professional resume of your own.
