Tanglewood Grotto (The Bavarian Woods) (Volume 2) Susan Finlay

Buried lies and tangled secrets threaten the lives of two time traveling families in the sequel to Inherit the Past. Seventy-six-year-old Lotte Furst doesn't know who she can trust. Her time traveling brother (the only person who can operate time portals) was supposed to send her back home—to 2009—but he double-crossed her. She only got partially back. Within days, she was again in 1789 Bavaria, stuck and in grave danger. And why? Before her failed attempt to get home, she had written a letter confessing to a murder she didn't commit. The letter was meant to help fellow time traveler, Karl Kimmel, and atone Lotte's past mistakes. It shouldn't have affected her future, since she was supposed to be out of harm's way. Now that her good deed has backfired, Lotte is on the run and hiding in a grotto like an animal because, if caught by the Bavarian Feldgendarms, she'll go to prison. Her only hope is to find her wily brother and persuade him to send her back where she belongs. Karl knows where her brother is and Karl owes her. Trouble is, Karl lives in a big town where danger of capture looms. Plus, he has a granddaughter who wants to see Lotte caught and brought to justice. Lotte's visit with Karl sets off an explosive chain reaction affecting everyone she knows in the past—including estranged family members she originally time traveled with four months ago. People go missing. People die. And secrets get spilled.
