You'll also find ways to more effectively help your student deal with test anxiety (and failure) and some secrets about test questions your student's teacher may not know. (You'll see the tools needed to ace an organic chemistry quiz when you know nothing about the subject!) 4. How can you help your student read better? (Do you know about SQ3R? And how to use it?) And write better? (How can you help with a writing assignment?) You'll get specific suggestions. 5. You'll get lots of ideas for helping with homework (not just watching the student work), suggestions for motivating, and help for dealing with problems.
