Excerpt from A Text-Book of Tropical Agriculture

"If you wish success, make perseverance your bosom friend, experience your wise counsellor, caution your elder brother, and hope your guardian genius." - Addison.

"It is both the duty and interest of every Owner and Cultivator of the Soil to study the best means of rendering that soil subservient to his own and the general wants of the community; and he who introduces, beneficially, a new and useful Seed Plants or Shrub into his district, is a blessing and an honour to his country." - Sir J.Sinclair.

Mary Craine:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library in order to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's internal or real their passion. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and also can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this A Text-Book of Tropical Agriculture (Classic Reprint) can make you really feel more interested to read.
