Her employer was a fair enough man, a little odd but surely no threat. He had never coerced her into any action where she wasn't comfortable. She had thought that it was pretty much certain that she would be expected to perform specific favors to earn her keep. But so far, she saw less of Vidor then she had at the tavern.

In 18th Century England, Hester dreams of running away with the gypsies. She is taken in by a tall, handsome stranger, Vidor, with hypnotic eyes and a seductive accent, to teach his niece Gigi how to sing. Hester soon begins to experience new and altogether unexpected sexual pleasures with her master and his servants, both male and female.
