An invaluable, interactive learning tool that allows students to build customized care plans using the Nursing Information Retrieval System (NIRS C) developed by the National Council of State Boards of Nursing. You can customize a care plan based on specific patient information or generate one as a learning exercise based on a case study. Selected nursing activities can be automatically matched to the NCLEX-RN R Examination Test Plan Categories. Easy-to-use editing, toggling, print, and print preview features make building a care plan simple. In addition to guiding learners step by step on how to build a care plan, this program offers an opportunity to learn the terminology used in the National Council's Computerized Clinical Simulation Test (CST R).
