Simple & Traditional - Good Fun for All Ages

Dice games are great fun for all the family and can be played anywhere, at any time – with no need for computers or batteries. This book includes over 50 games that anyone can play – learn to play on your own – or take money from your family! Thrash close friends into eternal submission, then play to win new friends! Joking aside, this book will open your eyes to a world of enjoyment.

Knucklebones and dice are among the games that have survived, with modifications, from prehistoric times right up to the present day. Ivory, gold and silver dice in the world's museums are evidence that dice games have been discovered in every country and at every epoch. From royalty and nobility, the passion for dice spread to all social levels. and gambling with dice has ruined Chinese scholars, North American Indian braves. and Italian noblemen. as well as affecting the lives of the Canterbury pilgrims according to Chaucer and the gutter-friends of the poet Villon.

William Tredd has collected dice games from many nations for this book, but he has also invented many new games which are here published for the first time, including his celebrated 'World Cup Football' and 'Melbourne Three Boards'. Everyone possessing a few dice will want to try out these original, occasionally educational, and often amusing pastimes with their family and friends.

The book is provided with a historical introduction – The Story of Dice.
