Mabel Blechman, 67, disappears and Private Investigator Matti McAllister is hired to find her. When Mabel's hand turns up displayed in Matti's yard, the FBI move in to corral both Matti and the Texas Butcher, who always kills three women in every town he visits then displays their body parts in increasingly bizarre and prominent places. Matti and the FBI race to find him before he completes his killing spree in Mesquite Cove, the fifth town he's targeted. While the FBI studies the pieces the Butcher leaves behind, Matti tries to discover why Mabel did the strange things she did before she was taken, which isn't easy since Matti's being tracked by both the FBI and the Texas Butcher.
