Redeeming Grace: Redemption Tales Book Three (Volume 3) George H. McVey

The past has caught up to Grace and the Preacher. For Grace in the woman she worked for in New York. For Nathan in the arrival of his judgemental father. Rumors and gossip threaten to destroy Nathan's position as pastor before it's even really begun. Twisting the truth, Grace's singing career becomes the focus of self-righteous church members. Nathan's father not only disapproves of Grace but also Nathan's dual occupations of US Marshal and Preacher. Add one determined gunslinger out to take The Preacher's reputation and a deputy who is overcome by guilt and loss. It will take a heavy dose of God's grace to survive. What do you do when your past threatens your future? When people forget what God's forgiveness is all about? How, as pastor, will Nathan get them to see what should be obvious? Is there anything that isn't covered by Redeeming Grace?
