A veteran officer of the Civil War and the Indian Wars, General Henry B. Carrington was a prolific writer and student of military affairs. In this detailed account of George Washington as a military leader, Carrington evaluates issues such as strategy, logistics, engineering, tactics, and more. Drawn from letters and orders, he paints a portrait of a commander who was the man of his time. It is a fascinating and vibrant tale. This book is available for the first time as an affordable, well-formatted book for e-readers and smartphones. Carrington was the commander at Fort Phil Kearny when the Fetterman Massacre took place. His wife wrote the very interesting account of their time at Fort Kearny, "Ab-sa-ra-ka, Home of the Crows." Every history of the American Revolution provides us with another view of the event that created a nation.
