This manual offers educators and clinicians an engaging and in-depth introduction to CKCC's approach to family-school collaboration. CKCC's goal is to help educators connect EVERY family to their child's learning experience in educationally meaningful ways which enhance student achievement. In a series of sequenced, user-friendly sessions, the manual lays a foundation for schools, families and students to employ strategies which lead to improved academic performance, including: *setting academic goals, *sharing hands-on learning experiences, *discussing educationally, culturally and socially important topics, and *solving problems in a collaborative and non-blaming fashion.
