The Mis-Understood Erin Neu

Alana Bliss was trying to live her dream. As a poor dancer in Manhattan, she had much to work for. With her mind set straight, she figured she had everything laid out and planned. When Logan Tate, her old best friend, returns, everything starts to unravel. When everything starts to fall apart in their lives, the problems don't seem to end. One thing after another...nothing seems to go right. But, at the same time, their lives are beginning. Their lives are just starting to get better...
