Digital scrapbooking is the exciting fast-growing hobby that's taking the craft scene by storm. Instead of cutting and pasting your pictures into an album, you use digital photos, clip art, graphic textures and embellishments to make mementoes on your computer screen. They can then be printed out onto paper, fabric and ceramics - multiple times. Now for the first time there's a New Zealand book that shows you how to do it. Digital Scrapbooking includes the basics (software, supplies etc), organisational tips, design principles, design gallery, tutorials on special techniques and challenges for experts. This book is a standout in the field and will be inspiring and captivating for those new to digital scrapbooking as well as for experts.
