A Faithful Dad's Guide to Legacy Travis L. Zimmerman

What legacy do I want to leave for my family? This is arguably one of the most, if not the most, critical question a dad - regardless of age - will ever answer. Yet, as we think through it, a legacy isn't just something that you produce at the end of your life, something you just whip up quickly in the kitchen like some microwave leftovers for your kids to gobble down after soccer practice. No, a legacy is, of course, something that is built up - or torn down - over time, a lifetime to be specific. It's something developed day by day, interaction by interaction with those we love, those who love us, those closest to us. So, when I'm gone from this earth, what will I be remembered for, both good...and bad? Through authentic experiences and biblical examples, A Faithful Dad's Guide to Legacy will equip you to leave a lasting legacy your family will treasure.
