Recueil des Cours:Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law

The Academy is an institution for the study and teaching of Public and Private International Law and related subjects. Its purpose is to encourage a thorough and impartial examination of the problems arising from international relations in the field of law. The courses deal with the theoretical and practical aspects of the subject, including legislation and case law. All courses at the Academy are, in principle, published in the language in which they were delivered in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law. This volume contains: Le droit international a la recherche de ses valeurs: paix, developpement, deemocratisation (conference inaugurale) par B. BOUTROS-GHALI, membre du Curatorium de l'Academie; secretaire general de la Francophonie, Paris. The Evolution of International Law of the Sea: New Issues, New Challenges by T. SCOVAZZI, Professor at the University of Milan-Bicocca. Capital Markets and Conflict of Laws by H. KRONKE, Professor at the Institute of Foreign and International Private and Economic Law, Heidelberg. To access the abstract texts for this volume please click here"
