The Life of a Tree: How a Tree Grows Acacia Grove

This book is for the very young children who love to look at color and nature. Children show a natural interest in nature and plants and this book will give them an introduction to how a plant grows, starting from the seed in the earth. It is simple, short with beautiful flowers and it has bright pictures and it is short and concise in order to enhance the reading pleasure and keep the interest of the child. It would also be a good bedtime story to give the children a break from the usual fairy tales.
