Walking the Exodus: My Journey in the Footsteps of Moses Margaret Malka Rawicz

Leading biblical scholars and archaeologists have argued about the actual route of the biblical Exodus from Egypt for decades. Discover the route Moses and the Israelites took as they fled Egypt three and a half millennia ago. Along with her Bedouin guide, Rabia, Margaret Rawicz treks through treacherous deserts and areas in order to recover and identify the sites of the first fifteen known Israelite encampments. She then explores another eighteen encampments in the Sinai Desert and the final nine in Jordan. Including photographs and personal stories, Walking the Exodus is not only a discovery, but also a transformation of one's life.
