Not illustrated. 1844 Excerpt: ...plaintiff, and had refused inspection of them; by reason of which plaintiff had been prevented making out proper bills of costs, &c, or proper entries, &c.; that defendant at all times refused to make out or to join in making out any account of the partnership dealings and transactions since the month of April 1842; that defendant frequently used violent and insulting language to plaintiff for the purpose of compelling plaintiff to a dissolution of the partnership. The bill charged that the defendant had, since April 1842, done much business, and received large sums on account of the partnership, which he refused to give account of, and had applied the same to his own use; that defendant still continued to exclude plaintiff from all knowledge of and controul over the business transacted by defendant, &c, and had expressed a determination to have a dissolution of the partnership. The bill prayed an account of the partnership dealings and transactions since April 1842, and an account of the monies received and paid by plaintiff and defendant respectively, in regard thereto, and of all the receipts and payments of defendant in respect of the said offices and appointments, which ought to have been brought into the said partnership account; plaintiff offering to account for the partnership dealings and transactions which had been carried on by him, and his receipts in respect thereof; and that a fair and proper division of profits, made by the partnership from the 1st of January 1840, might be made between plaintiff and defendant, not disturbing the accounts so made up as aforesaid; and that defendant might be directed to pay to plaintiff what, upon the taking of such accounts, should appear to be due to him. The bill also prayed a receiver, but did ...
