In the Spirit of Seville Antonio del Junco

Spellbinding, romantic, rich in history, and steeped in culture, are some of the many ways to describe the city of Seville. Natives and visitors alike can explore this romantic city through its diverse neighborhoods including the Arenal, the city center; the Jewish Quarter; and the main tourist area, the Santa Cruz; and stumble upon landmarks and treasures such as the Alcazar of Seville, the oldest active royal palace, and the magnificent Seville Cathedral. Seville's beauty and magic have also served as inspiration for many artists, writers, and composers. In the Spirit of Seville is a beautifully illustrated stroll through this enchanting city.
