Instant Skiing, Instant Fun Richard Lee Roberts

Anyone can learn to ski instantly and have fun doing it! No longer is it necessary to lug that long, heavy equipment up to the slopes, and then struggle to make your way down the hill. Forget years of lessons or being stuck on beginner or intermediate runs. Life is too short for that. Skiboards, along with the tips offered in this Instant Skiing method, will dramatically shorten your learning curve, even for experienced skiers.

Skiboards spark a new sense of confidence, capability and joy, accelerating personal freedom and creative expression on the ski slopes. About twice the width of skis, half the length and pure fun from the very first day, skiboards feel more like skates, with similar balance and maneuverability. Being totally easy to ride, and designed to handle all terrain and conditions, skiboards will literally transform your snow riding experience.

Richard Roberts, a long time skiboarder and owner of the Skiboards Superstore, Inc. shares his discoveries regarding the essential secrets to learning to ski the natural way. Using your innate body wisdom, you can jump right into carving parallel turns, while being able to stop whenever you choose. Being able to master the equipment so quickly, instant fun becomes an everyday occurrence.

Yet, the best kept secret is that this increased frequency of peak moments begins to carryover into daily life. The simple mechanics of instant skiing ignites greater freedom, joy, creative expression, energy and a renewed vitality. Using this tool to simply enter the state of Flow or the Zone opens the door to realizing your greater human potential, on and off the slopes.
