What better way to teach young children to pray and ease those nighttime fears than with a bedtime prayer of blessing?

Young children ages three to six will love to follow along with the rhyming prayer in God Bless Me, God Bless You. The book teaches children to pray for people in their family and in other countries, reassures them that God takes care of animals and creation, and ends in confidence that God will bless both me and you. It also reminds children that God created all things and that we should appreciate His gifts.

Colorful illustrations by John Bendall-Brunello portray animals and children in charming, fun ways that adults will love, too. God Bless Me, God Bless You will appeal to parents, grandparents, caregivers, teachers, and anyone looking for a gift for a small child.
