Alexis Jergenson, a former attorney, flees her painful past and unsettling law career to teach at a small Christian college. But she's not the only one running. When she crashes into Professor Luke Stephens, sparks fly. Stephens is fleeing the effects of the Afghanistan War and a failed marriage, and the last thing he wants is another pretty woman in his life. Haunted by their pasts, they're both seeking new lives. However, when one of their students is assaulted, they find themselves allies in a fight for her life.
