The fabled Paladine, an order known to control an elemental magic known simply as the "Light", have been nearly wiped out overnight by a raid on their homeland of Vathra. With the exception of two surviving brothers, Kimura and Aedrius, these two must chase down the enemies responsible known only as the Char. The brothers find that they are making no progress as the Char is always a step ahead of them. They will discover a great dwarven empire and new allies along the way in their journey into Ethra.
