When Hurricanes Howl (Eye on the Sky) Barbara M Linde

When Hurricane Sandy hit the northeastern United States in 2012, the destruction was extensive. It would prove to be the worst Atlantic hurricane of the 2012 season and took years to rebuild from. With hurricanes a reality for many who live on the coasts of the United States, understanding how to prepare for one is of utmost importance. This volume offers readers safety tips for preparing and enduring a hurricane, as well as explains the science behind hurricane formation and strength. Engaging sidebars about hurricane watches, warnings, and tracking complement full-color photographs of hurricane devastation around the world.
