In book three of THE TRAVELERS, When Eve Starvinski discovers the Prince is still alive and his edict is still in force, she sees only one way to destroy humanity. But first, she has to steal a small bag of blood that could hold the key to time travel. Traveling to the past, she hires a group of scientists to analyze the blood and plans to give it to the most evil rulers of the day. However, when a young girl enters her life, she sees an opportunity, but growing attached to the girl gives Eve a weakness that she must cast aside. Will Eve be able to give the power of time travel to evil rulers? Or will her heart win her over?
