Bobby Wayne Forsythe is a NASCAR superstar on the verge of greatness the likes of The King and The Intimidator when an on-track accident leaves his career in jeopardy and his future uncertain. He returns to the home he owns with Lauren Foster-Forsythe, Wife Number 3. The only woman he's ever loved. And the only woman who has ever walked away from him - without a backward glance, leaving his heart broken. And a gaping hole in his soul that no other woman has ever been able to fill. And he's tried. A lot.

Lauren Foster-Forsythe is a country music sensation and the ex-wife of Bobby Wayne Forsythe. Theirs had been a whirlwind courtship; their marriage fairytale. Their life together perfect... until Bobby Wayne's deceit destroyed everything, leaving Lauren with bittersweet memories of what could have been. And a stately old mansion she still jointly owns with him. A home she needs to turn ownership over to him if she is to move forward with her life. It's hard. It's the only home she's ever had.

With her life in turmoil, Lauren returns to the stately house on the shore for one more visit. Instead of finding closure, she finds Bobby Wayne. Still hard-bodied, still white-hot sexy. Still able to make her heart race like no other man. Sparks of attraction fly, tempers flare, but nothing revs like two hearts still deeply in love. But is it enough? Has their race for a happily ever-after been run? Or just begun? Can they find love Beyond the Checkered Flag?
