My Story is not Unique...: My Journey through Domestic Violence into God's Awesome Healing

Stephanie A Mayberry

"My story is not unique, it has played out in many lives, many families. The only difference is that it happened to me." In this very short, but very powerful personal account written by Christian author, Stephanie Mayberry, you will walk in the shoes of a battered woman. Mrs. Mayberry tells you her own story with brutal honesty, exposing the most vulnerable parts of herself in hopes that her own experiences will stop other women from traveling down that same path. Hear her words, feel her pain as she reminds you again and again that "it is a progression." Every woman should read this. Whether you are married, dating or just starting to date, you will find profit in her lesson. Anyone who has been touched by domestic violence or knows someone in an abusive situation can benefit by seeing that world through the eyes of someone who lived it. Journey with her, feel the pain, not only in her body, but in her heart as well. Rejoice with her as she escapes the bonds of family violence and boldly steps forward to share her story. Stephanie offers solid, Biblical references to show what God has to say about husbands and wives - and what He says about domestic violence. Walk with her as she offers forgiveness to her abuser and finds complete healing through the love and power of Jesus Christ.
